Re: United States v. Reifler, 1:20-cr-512-1

Dear Mr. Abrams:

Pursuant to this Court's Local Rules, please find enclosed three pieces of media (Productions 1.1, 1.2 and 1.3), along with an Index and Addendum enclosed at Attachments A and B, describing the various materials contained on the media. The enclosed media is encrypted, and the passwords will be provided to you via email.

- Written and Recorded Statements of the Defendant, Rule 16(a)(1)(A)-(B). Some statements of the defendants are contained on the enclosed hard drives. Any additional statements will be contained in later productions.
- Prior Criminal Record, Rule 16(a)(1)(D). The enclosed materials contain the defendant's NCIC criminal records.
- Documents and Tangible Objects, Rule 16(a)(1)(E). The enclosed materials contain documents and tangible objects. We will make available for your inspection any other documents and tangible objects that are within the Government's possession, custody, or control and which are (1) material to the preparation of the defense; (2) intended for use by the Government as evidence in its case-in-chief at trial; or (3) obtained from or belonging to your client.

In addition, in April 2018, counsel for the defendant produced to the Government certain electronic devices, including a server for the Forefront offices, images of several computers, and email and iCloud data for various individuals, among other things (hereinafter, the “Forefront Devices”). The Government notes that it was unable to access the contents of select items within the Forefront Devices, including an iOmega NAS device and devices described as Haystack images of computers for Alisa Rusanoff and custodian Wendy Espinoza. In August 2020, counsel for the defendant informed the Government that it did not have the password necessary to access the iOmega NAS drive. In addition, counsel for the defendant did not respond to the Government’s August and September 2020 requests for assistance accessing the Haystack images of computers for Ms. Rusanoff and Ms. Espinoza. As a result, the Government cannot access these devices, and their contents are not included in the enclosed media. The Government will make these and any other of the Forefront Devices available for inspection at the request of defense counsel.

- Specific Examinations and Reports, Rule 16(a)(1)(F). No examinations and tests have been completed to date. If and when any such tests are completed, the Government will comply with the disclosures required under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(F).
- Expert Witnesses, Rule 16(a)(1)(G). If necessary, the United States will retain expert witnesses in connection with trial in this matter. We will provide you with a summary of the expert’s testimony in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G) prior to trial.
- Title 18, United States Code, Section 3500. The United States reserves the right to follow the procedures set forth in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3500 with respect to any Government witness.
- Brady/Giglio Material. The Government is aware of its obligations under Brady and Giglio and will furnish any such material at such a time as to permit its appropriate use by the defense. You may find that the enclosed materials contain Brady or Giglio material. We have not attempted to characterize any such material in that fashion.
- Reciprocal Discovery, Rule 16(b). Please accept this letter as a request under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b) for all materials discoverable by the Government under that Rule.

The attached index provides further detail on this Discovery production, to include a description of the documents in each subset; the “Beg Doc” and “End Doc” corresponding to the Bates numbers for that subset; and the media on which these records are produced.

Along with the Index, a majority of the material has been provided to you in a load-ready, searchable format. We have also provided you with the following metadata fields to assist you in locating and reviewing the discovery produced in this case: Production BEGDOC; Production ENDDOC; Production BEGATT; Production ENDATT; Custodian; Doc Author; Doc Date

Created; Doc Date Last Modified; Doc Date Last Print; Doc Ext; Doc Subject; Doc Time Created; Doc Time Last Modified; Doc Title; Doc Type; Email BCC; Email CC; Email Conversation; Email Date Sent; Email EntryID; Email Folder; Email From; Email INTMSGID; Email Subject; Email Time Sent; Email To; File Path; Filename; MD5 Hash; Page Count; Password Protected; Placeheld; SHA1 Hash; Source; Batch Sort; Text Precedence; and FILE_PATH. The documents at Bates numbers DOJ-PROD-0001930165 - DOJ-PROD-0001933996 and DOJ-PROD-0001959698 - DOJ-PROD-0001960412 have been provided in native format. We will continue our efforts to produce these documents in a load-ready format and, if they can be prepared in a load-ready format, re-produce them accordingly.

The prosecution team in this case has relied upon a filter protocol and filter team within the Fraud Section to segregate and screen documents potentially subject to claims of privilege or other protection ("Potentially Privileged Material"). The Filter attorney in this case is assigned to the U.S. Department of Justice, Criminal Division, Fraud Section's Special Matters Unit. The Filter Team attorney has a separate reporting and supervisory chain from the Prosecution Team in this case and is supported by paralegals and other professional staff who are not part of the Prosecution Team. We understand that the Filter Attorney will contact defense counsel regarding materials that, to date, have been withheld from the prosecution team and that are not included in the enclosed production. The Filter Attorney will be handling any and all discovery of Potentially Privileged Material.

The Government recognizes its ongoing obligation to supplement these disclosures if new material becomes available or changing circumstances warrant additional disclosures. The Government continues to review its files for discoverable information and materials. To the extent that any additional discoverable information and materials are located, the Government will produce them to you pursuant to its obligations. Should you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact Tom Tynan at (202) 768-1136.

Sincerely,
